

To whom it concerns, I just purchased XM Radio system. Apparently, as always, politics are getting involved. I don't listen to regular radio any longer due to selections on the radio. They get rid of the good stations and put on crap you can't understand. As far as weather and traffic stations, I don't think satellite radion is hurting the industry at all. Leave it as it is.

Joseph Miller